Lt. General, USAF
Commander, USAFE

Dear General Tunner:

I am writing this letter to inform you that my recent flight around the world in one of my C-118 aircraft, flown by a crew from the 7405th Support Squadron, was extremely successful and a most enjoyable one.

Captain William Campbell, AO [redacted] and Captain Frank Beverly, AO [redacted] the two pilots, conducted themselves throughout this two month tour in an exemplary manner.

Captain Stein, M/Sgt. Phillips, T/Sgt. Holman, T/Sgt. Maynes, and S/Sgt. McLain all did outstanding jobs and their performance of duty and conduct was a source of comfort to us.

I wanted you to know, and be justly proud of this very fine and highly qualified crew which added immeasurably to the success of my missions.

Thank you again for providing me with this crew of very fine individuals. I am proud and honored that you furnished me with such highly qualified people.

Sincerely,

ALLEN W. DULLES
Director
